Put your name on your customers lips!

March 2006, Once again Custom Amenities Inc comes out with another addition to it's already extensive line of guest toiletries.

We have been supplying the tub style lip balm for several years now, says Peter Hansum, President of Custom Amenities Inc., However, this is new packaging with a twist, that will surely leave a lasting impression with your guests.

Hoteliers are constantly looking for an item that will carry their logo and have staying power with their clients.

Whether you supply it in your rooms or as a promotion sales tool, these high quality lip balms will stay with your guests long after their stay.

Testimonial

"While visiting in Canada, we had the pleasure of staying at the Charltons Resorts in Banff National Park.

Our visit was enhanced greatly when we were given a lip balm at the hotel. (I had forgotten mine back in England.)

This is the best lip balm product I have ever used!

Please be so kind as to let me know where I can purchase this product as I am about out."
